Aminah S. Carter

THE AI AUNTIE | Speaker - Educator - Entrepreneur

"AI ain't scary. Baby, we are not staying confused."

About Aminah

Aminah S. Carter is a New York-born actress, writer, producer, director, entrepreneur, and teacher who has spent her career turning big ideas into things people can see, use, and buy. As The AI Auntie, she helps ordinary people, small business owners, and communities stop feeling intimidated by technology and start using AI to save time, build, and earn. She teaches through lived experience, plain English, live demonstrations, humor, and encouragement, so every audience leaves the room using AI instead of fearing it.
